

VOLUNTEERING

WE NEED YOU!

ARE YOU keen to do something meaningful with your life and make a real difference?

DO YOU have specific skills, abilities and interests that you desire to use to bless others?

ARE YOU able to come for a longer period of time?

Then volunteering at FCE could be for you!

We need volunteers who:

* ...have pedagogical training and/or experience of working with children and young people with special needs to work at the Special Needs School, the After School project and at the Day Centre.

* ...have skills in :

- carpentry
- sewing
- music
- creative activities

...and can even share/teach them to others.

* ...have experience and enjoy working with youth.

- who can lead educational activities/courses
- who can lead art and craft activities
- who can share a Christian message/teaching from the bible in the bi-weekly club program.

* ...are service-minded and can make other volunteers and guests feel good so that their visit and work in FCE becomes a fully positive experience. Help is needed with practical work (cooking, cleaning, preparing rooms etc) in the Volunteer and Guest house.

* ...can help out with property maintenance as well as development and maintenance of our yards and outdoor areas.

* ...have good organisational skills and could work in our depot/warehouse sorting, organising and distributing the goods.

* ...are skilled in ICT and media.

* Knitted into the social work that FCE does, is the spiritual work. We need volunteers who are praying people, people who take initiative and can lead devotional times and prayer meetings. There is also a need for Bible studies and pastoral care.

The need for volunteers today is just as big as it has always been although the areas of need have changed over the years. The need for volunteers today is for people who have an education or skills in a specific area and who can work independently. Our desire is that they are physically healthy, spiritually stable and that they have a servant heart.
